

Bramcote is a friendly place to live.

BY MEGAN COTTERILL
AND KATIE ANN BARRATT

You should live in
Bramcote !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
!!!! :) :) :) :) :) :)

Bramcote leisure centre is located in Bramcote park. Bramcote park is a great environment, King George's Park offers great view across Bramcote. It is on a steeply sloping site with a network of surfaced paths providing a link to the adjacent countryside. There are two free to use tennis courts in park as well as a children's playground and several

In this area there is a lot of places for your children go like Bramcote Hills primary school, The Bramcote school , Foxwood foundation school and technology college. In the village centre there is also a primary school, a pre school nursery

Saint Michael and all Angels church is the local Anglican (church of England website) church of Bramcote, and is situated on church street in Bramcote. In addition to a regular pattern of Sunday services at 9:00am, 10:45am and 6:30 pm, Saint Michaels runs a comprehensive programme of spiritual and social activities for all ages; including children and young peoples groups, home groups, café Bramcote,

